TEMPLE PLANNING BOARD PROPOSED ZONING AMENDMENT
MARCH 10, 2015

Are you in favor of amending the Temple Zoning Ordinance, as proposed by the Planning Board, as follows: To amend Article VIII: Administration to add a requirement that agricultural buildings over a certain size obtain Site Plan Review approval, as below:

Section 2: (2001) Building Permit Required
It shall be unlawful to erect and use any structure, alter, remodel (except as noted in Section 3 below) or repair (except as noted in Section 6 below) any existing building, change the use of any land, building or structure, remove or demolish any existing structure, to repair or replace any existing structure destroyed or damaged by fire or an act of God, or relocate any building in any district within the Town of Temple without first obtaining a building permit from the Board of Selectmen or their agent, unless such structure or building is less than 125 square feet and serves as an accessory use to an existing residence. The Selectmen or their agent shall issue any and all building permits requested when such building permit is in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance. Prior to the granting of a permit for the development or change or expansion of any non-residential use or multi-family use, excepting agricultural ~~use~~ buildings of 3,000 square feet or less, Site Plan Review approval shall be granted by the Planning Board. Before any structure or dwelling may be occupied, all inspections must be completed and a certificate of occupancy issued by the Selectmen. (Passage recommended by Planning Board.)
