Kieley informed Wills that if the VGC became a committee of the town the members would be covered under the town's insurance. Kieley also stated that he had spoken to an Attorney at the LGC and there are three option regarding money. A) a revolving trust would not be available for this type of committee. B) an expendable trust could be available, this would need a vote of the Town Meeting. C) a trust fund under the Trustees of the Trust Funds. This option would require that the town has voted to allow the BOS to accept gifts of money. The Trustees would invest the funds, VGC could be the agents to expend under the trust document and the funds could only be used for VGC.
